Birds and Habitats

Different birds will live in different places.

Directions: Take a walk around your yard or neighborhood and look for birds. Check off the four common birds below when you see them. Write a sentence about what each bird was doing when you saw it. Was the bird eating? Singing? Sitting on its nest? Flying?

American Robin

______________________________

______________________________

Gray Catbird

______________________________

______________________________

Song Sparrow

______________________________

______________________________

Red-winged Blackbird

______________________________

______________________________